Transportation

Vancouver is known for its efficient and eco-friendly transportation system, featuring a combination of buses, SkyTrain (light rail), SeaBus ferries, and West Coast Express commuter trains. The TransLink system provides comprehensive coverage throughout the metropolitan area. The city is also very bike-friendly, with designated bike lanes throughout. Taxis and ride-sharing services like Uber and Lyft are available as well.

Public Transport Info

Transit costs vary depending on time of day, day of the week, and distance of travel. Vancouver's transit system is divided into three zones. Students can purchase a Compass Card, which allows for easy access to all public transit. The SkyTrain is a fast and convenient way to travel across the city and into the surrounding suburbs. Buses cover extensive routes across Vancouver.

Medical

If you have a medical emergency, go to the hospital's emergency department closest to you. Take some identification and your insurance policy number. Some hospitals may ask you to pay a fee. Keep the receipt to send to your insurance company for payment. For emergencies, call 911.

Go to a walk-in medical clinic for medical problems that are not emergencies. You do not need to make an appointment; you can simply see a doctor. The closest walk-in clinic to EC Vancouver is Coal Harbour Health Centre, 622 Bute Street, Vancouver, BC V6E 3M1. Call (604) 558-3313.

Legal Driving Age

In Vancouver, the legal age to drive is 16, but the minimum age to rent a car is 21. Additional charges may apply to drivers 21 to 24 years of age. Most rental companies require an international driving license, a second form of identity, and a major credit card.

Alcohol Age

The legal drinking age in British Columbia is 19. You must present identification when purchasing alcohol, and this applies to bars, restaurants, and liquor stores across the city.

Smoking Laws

The legal age for smoking in Vancouver is 19. Smoking is prohibited in public indoor spaces, including restaurants, bars, and workplaces. There are also restrictions on smoking near entrances and exits to public buildings and bans in some outdoor areas, such as beaches and parks. If you smoke in a 'smoke-free' place, you may receive a fine of up to CAD$2000.
