Calling all you Digital Nomads: Flexible English Programmes for Working People

Exclusive to EC Cambridge

Get focused personal attention with Flexi Track and learn the English that's important to your life now and in the future. This course combines One-to-One private lessons that are all about your personal needs with multinational group classes that promote interactive learning, helping you improve communication skills through collaboration and real-time discussions with classmates.

What is Flexi Track?

Flexi Track is a course designed to help you balance a study abroad trip with your work commitments. That's why we think it's perfect for digital nomads. Studying 12 or 19.5 hours per week leaves you plenty of time for your work. Flexi Track includes One-to-One private lessons so you can really focus on the English skills you want to improve.

Before you arrive: Choose from two study options to suit your language and professional goals.

Flexi Track Standard: Study 12 General English lessons per week combined with four private One-to-One lessons tailored to your individual language needs, plus optional Special Focus Classes to maximise your time abroad.

Flexi Track Intensive: Take it further with 12 General English lessons, 10 English for Work lessons, and four One-to-One sessions.

Take Flexi Track in Cambridge if you:

- Don't have the flexibility to take time off to study, but you still need to improve your English for work.
- Wish to network and socialise with other like-minded students from around the world.
- Have particular learning needs – we can tailor our teaching to your requests in your One-to-One lessons.
