

English or French & Bartending in Montreal

Learn how to mix drinks in Montreal with weekly cocktail classes

Montreal is well-known for its nightlife and social scene, so why not make the most of your time here by learning mixology?

Our English or French plus bartending option is exclusive to Montreal. You can combine your language course with a fun weekly session on how to make cocktails like a professional. Cocktail making is a fun skill to learn and perfect for impressing your friends back home!

Let Montreal's fantastic bar scene inspire you to make the perfect cocktail! Learn English or French and Bartending in Montreal and have a really enjoyable experience!

This English or French & Bartending course is suitable for students who:

- Are excited to learn how to mix drinks alongside their language studies.
- Want a unique cultural experience in Montreal's social scene.
- Enjoy learning new things and meeting new people in a fun, social way.

How it works

Choose any EC Montreal English or French course and combine it with a 90-minute bartending session. At the end of your session, you will receive a bartending certificate and enjoy a farewell drinks event where you can showcase your new skills and mingle with other students.

Montreal is well-known for its nightlife and social scene, so why not make the most of your time here by learning mixology (how to mix cocktails)? Our English or French & bartending option is exclusive to Montreal. You can combine your language course with a fun weekly session on how to make cocktails like a professional. Cocktail making is a fun skill to learn and perfect for impressing your friends back home! Let Montreal's cool bar scene inspire you to make the perfect cocktail!

Level

Pre-Intermediate

Course Duration

1 week minimum

Course start dates

Every week (one 90-minute session per week)

Lessons per week

20 Lessons of General English or French per week

Students per class

Average 14 (max 16)

Lesson Duration

1 Lesson = 45 minutes

Age

minimum age: 18

Available in Montreal

Benefits of Learning Mixology While Studying Abroad

Learning how to mix cocktails in Montreal can be a fun way to improve your English or French. In mixology class, you use English/French to learn new words, listen to instructions and practise speaking and interacting with others in a very fun way. You will meet new people, build confidence and talk in a natural environment, which can help you feel more comfortable with the language. Plus, mixology is a creative skill you can enjoy and use after your course. By learning to make cocktails in Montreal using English or French, you get language and life skills in an enjoyable, relaxed way.

Exploring Montreal's Bar and Nightlife Scene

Montreal has many unique bars, cafes, and social spots where people enjoy creative drinks. Learning how to mix cocktails here allows you to experience this part of Montreal's culture and connect with the city on a new level. Bars and restaurants in Montreal are fun places to explore in the city and help you understand what makes Montreal's night-time culture so special.

