

Bristol Homestay

Immerse yourself in local culture and hospitality with a selected host family.

On a Bristol Homestay, you stay in the home of an English-speaking host. Homestays offer excellent value for money, making your stay in Bristol more affordable. With options like Bed & Breakfast, and Half Board (breakfast and dinner), you can find a homestay that fits your budget. Every homestay is different, and we will do our best to place you in a homestay that matches your needs as closely as possible.

Your Neighbourhood

All homestay providers are English speaking and enjoy sharing their homes with our international students.

Students will enjoy Bristol, a vibrant university city in the Southwest of England. The city of Bristol is diverse and multicultural with a rich history in shipping and engineering. Our homestay providers reflect this diversity.

Your Accommodation

Staying with a homestay provider is an exciting and rewarding way for students to experience British culture. Homestays provide valuable insight into everyday life in the UK, helping students improve their communication skills and pick up useful phrases in real-world situations. Homestays are arranged by EC and through our accommodation partner, Hosts International, which is registered with the British Council.

Housing

Homestays offer mixed-gender accommodation, with access to shared spaces such as the lounge, kitchen, and dining room. Bathrooms are typically shared with the host family.

Students will eat whatever the hosts eat, and we encourage them to set the table or clear up after dinner. Dinners are usually quite early in Britain, but hosts will inform the student of the time when they eat. It is important that the student informs the host beforehand should they be late or not having dinner.
